Principal's Report –

- New initiatives for this year
    - Literacy & Math Night (fall)
    - One Book, One School (spring)

Mums sale fell a little short than previous years

6th grade recently had their first fundraiser
Tim Trama gave an update about the 6th grade
Kids night out, plus rollover balance has allowed for the adventure park field trip to be free for 6th grade students.
Fall Festival is their biggest fundraiser (haunted house)

Scholastic dollars, could be used for "One Book, One School" idea

Update given about Outdoor Committee
Discussed possibility of setting plans for working on the outdoor garden spaces

Principal Glasgow brought up the possibility of combining the back-to-school picnic and open house

New Business

Teacher grants, $200 per teacher which can be spent on classroom supplies
Josh went to the faculty meeting last week, and a form was created to send out to teachers. Need list from Principal Glasgow to track names.

$5000 is allotted for larger requests, there is a form created for that as well to solicit need requests from the staff. There will be a month-long deadline for responding.

Discussion for a DIY Sensory walk designed by Heather working with teachers for input and making it custom to Spring Glen School

Book Fair
19-22, evening time for Wednesday conferences
Closing Thursday after early dismissal so it doesn't conflict with fall festival
ParentSquare announcement will be sent out that has more emphasis on need for volunteers
Jeff requested list from Principal Glasgow for teachers and specialists, offering $100 per teacher for Scholastic Dollars
